

Freedom & Responsibility Belief and Thought Policy Statement

GCSCORED-IMHERS is dedicated to providing a learning environment that respects the freedom of personal belief and thought. In our Wellness Champion Life and Relationship Coaching Preparation Program, we maintain a stance of neutrality on political and religious matters. We do not endorse, require, or encourage the acceptance or support of any particular political or religious beliefs, principles, or creeds. Our focus is solely on the professional, personal, and educational development of our trainees, ensuring that all individuals feel respected and valued for their unique perspectives.
